Engaging Ministries of Finance

World Hepatitis Summit 2017
São Paulo Brazil

Eduardo Gonzalez Pier, PhD
Distinguished Visiting Fellow, Center for Global Development, Washington DC
Former Deputy Minister of Health of Mexico
MOH and MOF – finding a shared agenda?
Understanding MOH and MOF – A world apart?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>THEME</th>
<th>MOH</th>
<th>MOF</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Training</td>
<td>Medical doctors/ Public health specialists</td>
<td>Economists</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Value and tenets</td>
<td>Compassion, service, altruism and trustworthiness</td>
<td>Efficiency priority setting and trade-offs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Policy tools</td>
<td>Allocative efficiency</td>
<td>Productive efficiency</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mandates</td>
<td>Healthy populations</td>
<td>Economic growth/stability</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fears/concerns</td>
<td>Mortality rates</td>
<td>Budget deficits</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Constructing a common agenda MOF

MOF

Creating fiscal space
Pandemic preparedness
Value based health care

MOH
Building dialogue around Hepatitis

- Demonstrate the investment case (ex-ante)
  - Show good implementation capacity (ex-post)
    - Guarantee budget predictability
  - Manage patient expectations and industry pressures